Registration

In order to be considered a CAPLAW member, an organization must be a member in good standing of a state or regional CAA association that is a member of CAPLAW. To see if your state or regional association is a CAPLAW member, visit the "Current Members" page of the CAPLAW website at www.capl原因.org/currentmembers.html.

Some CAAs are individual members of CAPLAW. If you check the link above and find that the state or regional association to which you belong is not listed, call CAPLAW at 617.357.6915 to find out whether your CAA is an individual CAPLAW member.

CPE Credit:

1.5 hours of CPE credit can be earned per conference, per person. When registering for credit, please specify the number of individuals from your organization that will be seeking credit below and submit a registration form for each. *Mp3 fee only valid with audio conference registration.
